To the Parents of Students in grades 5-8:

Some books in Stargate’s library have been segregated due to their more mature content. Ms. Krill also lends out books which fall into this category. In the Library, these books have a large red dot on the spine, making them readily recognizable. Authors in this section include Orson Scott Card, Mary Higgins Clark, Chris Crutcher, Lisi Harrison, Ernest Hemingway, Margaret Mitchell, Tamora Pierce, and John Steinbeck. It also includes the more mature graphic novels, manga and books with explicit illustrations of the human body. The books may include references to or have a plot concerning mature or sexual situations, narcotics, extreme gore or violence, or deal with controversial issues. There are both fiction and non-fiction books in this section.

Signed authorization from parents must be obtained on an annual basis before students are able to check out these materials. If you would like your child to have access to these books, please return the permission slip below to your child’s classroom teacher, to Ms. Krill, or to the library. Authorization is given for one year only and this permission slip will remain in the library files for reference during that time.

Parents are welcome to browse the library’s collection during the hours the Library is open. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Shelly Krill, Junior High Language Arts, or Valicia McPherson, Information Resource Coordinator, Stargate Library.

During the 2008-2009 school year, my child, _____, has permission to check out young adult library books.
